

“Never, never be afraid to do what’s right, especially if the well-being of a person or animal is at stake. Society’s punishments are small compared to the wounds we inflict on our souls when we look the other way.” -Martin Luther King Jr.

“You think those dogs will not be in heaven! I tell you they will be there long before any of us.” -Robert Louis Stevenson

“Right is right, even if everyone is against it, and wrong is wrong, even if everyone is for it.”
-William Penn

“...No cat out of its first fur can ever be deceived by appearances. Unlike human beings, who seem to enjoy it.” -The Cat from the book The Last Unicorn by Peter S. Beagle

“You cannot get through a single day without having an impact on the world around you. What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make.” -Jane Goodall

“We have doomed the wolf not for what it is, but for what we deliberately and mistakenly perceive it to be –the mythologized epitome of a savage ruthless killer – which is, in reality, no more than a reflected image of ourselves.” -Farley Mowat

“If you have men who will exclude any of God's creatures from the shelter of compassion and pity, you will have men who will deal likewise with their fellow men.” -St. Francis of Assisi

“Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all.” -Aristotle

“Each time a euthanizing agent enters the bloodstream of a healthy animal – we wound humanity.” -Anna Briggs, founder of The National Humane Education Society

"The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail – not his tongue. -Anon.

"If having a soul means being able to feel love and loyalty and gratitude, then animals are better off than a lot of humans." -James Herriot

"Clearly, animals know more than we think, and think a great deal more than we know."

-Irene M. Pepperberg
